1. COMPLAINT ON FREQUENCY ASSIGNMENT

Frequency assignment is performed by AMA based on objectivity, transparency, non-discrimination, free frequency availability, and in compliance with the National Frequency Plan definitions, solely on the frequency bands to be administered by AMA.

In assigning frequencies that may be employed for audio and/or audiovisual broadcasts, AMA takes into account the fact that frequencies are a national asset of economic value as well as social and cultural relevance, therefore interference should be avoided, and the spectrum should be effectively used.

Network provision for audio and/or audiovisual broadcasts that require frequency use outside assigned frequency bands for radio and television broadcasts, according to the National Frequency Plan, shall be object to regulation, according to Law No. 9918, dated 19.05.2008 “On Electronic Communications”.

Network provision for audio and/or audiovisual broadcasts that do not require frequency assignment, such as cable or satellite television networks, shall be object to regulation, according to Law No. 9918, dated 19.05.2008 “On Electronic Communications”.
